University of Central Florida
Karen L. Smith
Faculty Center for Teaching and Learning

Melody Bowdon, Executive Director
Eric Main, Associate Director
Anna Turner, Instructional Specialist

www.fctl.ucf.edu
Guide to Teaching at UCF

1. Getting Started at UCF: The Basics
2. Before the Semester Begins: Designing and Preparing to Teach Your Course
3. During the Semester: Tools and Tips for Teaching Your Course
4. At the End of the Semester: Posting Final Grades and Reflecting on Your Teaching
5. Faculty Development and Support
6. UCF Acronyms
7. Critical University Policies for Faculty
Our Approach

• Emphasis on enhancement rather than remediation
• Partnership emphasis—function as a hub for faculty projects
• Campuswide engagement to ensure centrality to key conversations
Overview of Faculty Center Services and Activities

• Faculty Center website
  http://www.fctl.ucf.edu/
• Individual consultations
• Weekly workshops
• Observations or video recording of classes
• Faculty development conferences
• SOTL workshops and research opportunities
Faculty Center Services and Activities, cont’d.

- Faculty learning communities
- Department-level training events (peer review of teaching, teaching with technology, etc.)
- Weekly listserv
- Book clubs
- Place to check email between classes
- Library and resource repository
Fall 2015 Faculty Development Cohorts

• BYOD (Bring Your Own Device)
  – Tuesdays, 2-4 on 9/15, 10/6, 10/27 & 11/17

• Role-Immersion Activities for Student Engagement
  – Wednesdays, 1-3 on 9/16, 9/30, 10/14 & 11/18
Advice for New Faculty

• Manoj Chopra (Civil Engineering)
• Carolyn Massiah (Marketing)
• Ann Miller (Communication)
• Dan Murphree (History)
• Suha Saleh (Health Professions)
• General Q&A